This 3-piece suit was created in forest green and camel iridescent wool with a complimentary peach organza shell. The jacket has a 1-piece back that creates a fitted waist through the use of tucks and darts. The collar and pockets exhibit tucks to compliment the back details. The bias cut organza shell has hand-whipped tucks in an asymmetrical grid-like pattern and machine-stitched lettuce hemming on the neck and hemlines. An easy-fit bias skirt completes the ensemble.
